FAMILY ~ CREATIVITY ~ CONNECTION

The Intergenerational Family Retreat is a fundraiser created by the founder of Intergenerational Outreach Choirs (IOC). Proceeds from this retreat will fund the IOC women's choir inside Coffee Creek Correctional Facility.

Crystal Akins gathers passionate Oregon creatives to connect community through the creative process. To gain coastal community support, Crystal is partnering with her mother, Vickie Meneses, the founder of Oceana Family Literacy Center. Oceana is an Oregon nonprofit in Lincoln City that provides family literacy programs to ages 3 and up.

The retreat is a three day event. Retreat workshops include singing, dancing, musical instrument instruction, art, storytelling, literacy, cooking, costume play, hiking, meditation, performance, and service.

This retreat is for people who want to explore their creative curiosities with their families and community.

"I want to sing, dance, and play with my child!"~IOC singer
